7.1

Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1: Institution has Initiated the Gender Audit and Measures for the Promotion of Gender Equity

Sanskriti College's rules, curriculum, and extracurricular activities are designed to build a culture that is gender equal, gender sensitive, and entirely safe for all of its members and students.

Gender Equity & Sensitization

In Policies

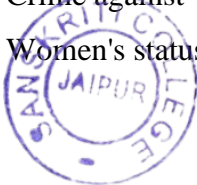

Sanskriti College respects each individual's dignity. In order to ensure the same, the College complies with the following policies and regulations:

- ❖ Action Plan
- ❖ Student Development Policy
- ❖ Anti-Ragging Policy
- ❖ Institutional Social Responsibility Policy
- ❖ Grievance Redressal Policy
- ❖ Sexual Harassment Policy for Students and Staff
- ❖ Parent Teacher Association Policy

In Curriculum

Sanskriti College actively promotes gender equality and women's empowerment. Students are encouraged to question gender conventions, accept diversity, and develop a strong sense of who they are and their worth. The college offers the following courses on gender equity:

- ❖ Socio-psychological behavior
- ❖ Feminism
- ❖ Women's education
- ❖ Women's rights in a national and global context
- ❖ Women's representation in politics
- ❖ Crime against women and children in India
- ❖ Women's status in rural and semi-urban areas.

PRINCIPAL,
Sanskriti College, JAIPUR

In Co-Curricular Activities:

To ensure the students' general development, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) works with other cells within the college to prepare a variety of activities. These events include International Women's Day, World Human Rights Day, National Unity Day, Workshops, Seminars, Health Check-up Camps, Talk Sessions, Guest Lectures, and others.

Facilities for women on campus

Safety and Security:

- ❖ Sanskriti College has a secure campus with CCTV cameras, an entry-point with visitor book, a security guard, health check-up and first aid facilities, a girls common room, a canteen, counseling sections, and an audio-visual room.

Counselling Guidance Facility in the Campus:

Psychological counseling focuses on the social welfare of its members and students. Personality assessments, IQ testing, memory tests, leadership tests, anxiety tests, and psychometric exams are just a few examples.

Institutional initiatives to celebrate National & International Commemorative Days

Institutions observe national worldwide commemorative days. The College believes that celebrating national and international holidays and festivals can help students develop a feeling of community and belonging. The institution routinely organizes events and celebrations to commemorate significant anniversaries.

7.1.1 ANNUAL GENDER SENSITIZATION ACTION PLAN

Sanskriti College understands the importance of providing a safe and supportive environment for all students, regardless of gender identity or expression. To that end, the college has committed to implementing an annual Gender Sensitization Action Plan. The key goals of this action plan are to educate the general public, raise community awareness, and build an environment of equality and respect.

Objectives:

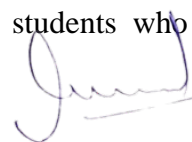

The yearly Gender Sensitization Action Plan has the following objectives:

1. To raise awareness of gender issues among workers, educators, and students.
2. To educate people about the negative consequences of harassment, violence, and gender-based discrimination.
3. Create a warm and accepting environment for all students, regardless of gender expression or identity.
4. To inspire the university community to take a proactive approach to promoting women's respect and equality.

Action Plan:

- ❖ The college has launched awareness initiatives to promote gender sensitivity among students. The programs use posters, brochures, and films to emphasize the significance of respect, nondiscrimination, and gender equality.
- ❖ The College has held workshops to educate staff, academics, and students on gender-related issues. The training addresses a variety of themes, including sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, harassment, and gender-based violence. The professors for these programs are professionals in their respective disciplines.
- ❖ The college developed the Gender Sensitization Committee, which includes academics, staff, and students. The committee is in charge of planning activities and events that promote gender awareness and equality on campus.
- ❖ The college will provide gender-neutral restrooms on campus. This will provide a safe and tolerant environment for staff, teachers, and students who do not comply to established gender roles.

PRINCIPAL,
Sanskriti College, JAIPUR

Evaluation:

The success of the yearly Gender Sensitization Action Plan will be assessed on a regular basis. The Gender Sensitization Committee will work with academics, staff, and students to make any changes to the plan. The school will also conduct surveys to determine the impact of the action plan on the campus community.

In conclusion:

Sanskriti College's mission is to provide a pleasant and safe atmosphere for all of its staff, teachers, and students. The annual Gender Sensitization Action Plan is the first step in meeting this aim. The university intends to develop an inclusive and inviting campus environment by raising public awareness, educating the public, and cultivating a climate of equality and respect.

Sanskriti College, JAIPUR

7.1.1 Specific Facilities Provided for Women

Sanskriti College usually offers a variety of resources and assistance for all students, especially female students, including:

• Safety & Security

1. Safe and secure campus environment: The college has implemented security measures to protect all students, particularly women. Security officers, CCTV cameras, and well-lit walkways are some examples of this.
2. The college offers monthly self-defense classes.
3. Colleges actively oppose sexual harassment and educate female students on the issue.
4. The College Women Redressal Cell (CWRC) handles women's grievances.

• Programmes and Counseling's

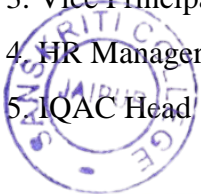

1. Women's Development Cells, also known as Women's Cells, are offered in universities to serve the specific needs and concerns of female students. These cells might provide lectures and training, as well as counseling and support, to people who have faced discrimination or harassment.
2. Female educators giving girls vocal guidance:
3. Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao Abhiyan.
4. March 8th marks the Week of the Girl Child and International Women's Day.
5. Women's Rights Programs:

• Facilities

1. Medical Facilities: The college provides emergency healthcare services for students.
2. Colleges provide dedicated sports facilities for female students. Swimming pools, gymnasiums, and sports fields may be examples of this.
3. The Women's Empowerment Cell:
4. Distinct bathrooms:

Student Grievance-Redressal Mechanism

The Student Grievance Redressal Committee of Sanskriti College investigates and reviews student complaints on an individual basis. The Committee can look into both academic and non-academic issues. It was put in place to ensure that all college students are responsive, accountable, cooperative, and in order. The Committee meets once every three months at the request of the Nodal Officer, or more frequently as necessary. The Committee's jurisdiction allows for a fair and just review of student difficulties, as well as the promotion of a learner-centric, student-friendly system and the establishment of a student support system based on comments, grievances and complaints.

Counseling Cell: The purpose of this cell is to guide and coach students throughout their growth, including early intervention to settle any complaints. Complaint Box: Students can quickly drop off a properly completed Grievance Form in the Complaint Box, located outside the principal's office.

Policy on Prevention of Sexual Harassment

PRINCIPAL,
Sanskriti College, JAIPUR

Declaration of Policy

Sanskriti College's goal is to protect the dignity of laborers, employees, job hopefuls, students, and others obtaining training, teaching, or education. Along with ensuring the full application of the "Fundamental Rights" as stated in sections 14, 15, 19(1)(g), and 21 of the Indian Constitution, it also aspires to ensure complete respect for human rights and the dignity of every individual.

OBJECTIVES OF THE POLICY

1. Establish a strategy to prevent sexual harassment and gender-based violence.
2. Ensure effective policy communication and implementation through proper grievance reporting and settlement.
3. Create a workplace devoid of gender bias.
4. Creating a safe and secure environment that discourages inappropriate behavior.

Composition of the Anti – Sexual Harassment Committee

1. The committee chair will be a senior female faculty member from the college.
2. The committee will include a female class IV staff member, two senior female faculty members, one senior male faculty member, and at least one female administrative staff person.
3. Three female students will serve as committee representatives.
4. The committee will consist of the principal and one management nominee appointed by the St. Wilfred's Education Society.
5. The committee will include a parent of a female college student.

Functions of the Committee:

Preventive Steps

The committee's purpose is to provide a secure environment free of sexual harassment. Encourage environmentally friendly activities while promoting gender equality and equal opportunities.

Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell

Introduction

The college has formed an Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell to protect female staff and students from gender-based harassment. A drop box has been installed outside the principal's office for reports of gender inequity, violence, or any other issue that should be forwarded to the Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell.

Roles and Responsibilities:

The college established a Women Cell to address issues affecting women. Female staff personnel in the cell often interact with female students. The cell focuses on issues that affect women, particularly those related to gender sensitization and awareness. Committee to Prevent Sexual Harassment: To guarantee a safe atmosphere free of such behavior, the College has implemented a zero-tolerance policy for sexual harassment. For the past five years or more, the College has not received any complaints of this sort about sexual harassment.

Event Summary	The ozone layer, which is located in the Earth's stratosphere and is vital to the survival of life on the planet, absorbs most of the sun's harmful ultraviolet (UV) radiation. Its depletion can have an impact on marine life and ecosystems, as well as raise the risk of skin cancer, cataracts, and other illnesses in people. We honor the progress made in the phase-out of ODSs on World Ozone Day, as well as the importance of continuous global efforts to protect and restore the ozone layer. It also highlights the link between climate change and ozone depletion and the need for sustainable practices to reduce the environmental dangers associated with each.

Event Summary	India Every year on August 15, people celebrate Independence Day, marking the day in 1947 when India finally won its freedom from British rule after almost 200 years of colonization. It represents the end of a nonviolent campaign spearheaded by a number of politicians and liberation fighters, including Jawaharlal Nehru, Sardar Patel, and Mahatma Gandhi. One of the primary symbols of the day is the tricolor flag, which stands for faith and chivalry in green, white for truth and peace, and saffron for bravery and sacrifice. In India, Independence Day is also a time to commemorate the nation's progress and accomplishments since gaining its independence, as well as to remember the sacrifices made by those who battled for it.

Title	Celebration of The birth of Dr. Radhakrishnan
Date	5 September 2019
Venue	Sanskriti College
Organized by	Student Development Cell
Faculty Coordinator	Dr Farah Khan
Resource Person	Megha Sharma
Event Summary	We recognize and give thanks to teachers on Teacher's Day for the invaluable work they do shaping the lives of their students. Schools and other educational institutions organize assemblies, special events, and cultural activities to honor the day. Students often give flowers, gifts, and cards to their instructors as a way of saying thank you. Dr. Radhakrishnan personally advocated for the importance of education and the role that teachers play in society. In honor of his legacy, his birthday was declared Teacher's Day in India. It's a day to recognize his contributions and the work that educators do to educate and raise the next generation.

Name of Activity	Blood Donation Camp on Non Violence Day (Gandhi Jayanti)
Title	Non Violence Day (Gandhi Jayanti)
Date	2 October 2019
Venue	Sanskriti College
Organized by	Student Development Cell and NSS
Faculty Coordinator	Ashish Mathur
Resource Person	Megha Sharma
Event Summary	Celebrated on Gandhi Jayanti in India and around the world, it is a day to respect the principles of truth, non-violence, peace, and social justice. It serves as a reminder of his enduring impact and his contributions to humanity through the dissemination of the Satyagraha (truth-force) and Ahimsa (non-violence) teachings. Gandhi Jayanti customs include spinning the charkha, or spinning wheel, which is one of the most identifiable traditions. Gandhi's emphasis on self-reliance, economic independence, and the empowerment of rural inhabitants is reflected in it. Celebrities, politicians, and common people can also participate in peace marches, cleanliness programs, blood donation drives, and other community service initiatives to honor Gandhi's commitment to social welfare and humanitarianism.
